Whereas Graceland continues to serve as a pilgrimage site for millions of Elvis Presley fans from around the world;

Whereas Graceland is recognized as one of the most visited historic house museums in the United States, attracting over 600,000 visitors each year; and

Whereas Graceland will continue to impact the popular culture of the United States by educating millions of visitors for years to come: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(2) acknowledges the importance of designating Graceland as a National Historic Landmark for the purposes of recognizing and preserving that unique cultural attraction; and

(3) congratulates Graceland on the occasion of its designation as a National Historic Landmark.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I want to take a few moments to comment on the resolution that was just agreed to with regard to Graceland.

As famous as the White House, as beloved as Wrigley Field, each year over 600,000 people from around the world travel to Memphis, TN, to see Graceland, the legendary home of the King of Rock.

Today, I am pleased to introduce and pass the Senate resolution honoring Graceland as a National Historic Landmark.

On behalf of my fellow Tennesseans, I extend my thanks to Secretary Norton for recognizing this unique contribution to American culture, and the extraordinary influence of the man who made it his own, Elvis Aaron Presley.

Born on January 8, 1935, in a 2-room house in East Tupelo, MS, Elvis and his family moved to Memphis when he was 13. Six years later—with the help of Sam Phillips, Sun Records, and his recording of "That's All Right"—Elvis became a star.

From that moment on his fame only grew, propelling him into the small pantheon of American icons who single-handedly remade popular culture.

In the 1960s, Leonard Bernstein was moved to remark, "Elvis is the greatest cultural force in the 20th century. He introduced the beat to everything music, language, clothes. It's a whole new social revolution."

John Lennon famously said, "Before Elvis, there was nothing."

Elvis fused the styles of gospel country, and rhythm and blues. His instinctual style revolutionized rock'n roll and drove it to the center of popular culture.

Through his enormous talent, drive, and charisma, Elvis achieved remarkable success over 2 decades earning 97 gold albums, 55 platinum albums, 25 multi-platinum albums, 51 gold singles, 27 platinum singles, 7 multi-platinum singles, and album sales exceeding 120 million copies.

When the 21-year-old star appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show in 1956, 82.6 percent of the viewing public tuned in.

Thirteen years later Elvis opened in Las Vegas, selling out a 2,000 seat showroom, 2 shows a night, for 4 weeks straight.

He became the most successful performer in Las Vegas history, surpassing Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, or Barbra Streisand.

In 1973 Elvis performed the now legendary "Aloha from Hawaii, via Satellite." The concert was beamed worldwide, attracting the largest television audience to date, estimated at 1.5 billion viewers.

Elvis was only 36 when he received the prestigious Recording Academy's Lifetime Achievement Award.

In 2004, the Recording Industry Association officially certified Elvis Presley as the No. 1 solo artist in U.S. history.

Elvis was, and remains, a genuine cultural force. Millions of fans from around the world have traveled to Graceland to feel a little closer to this American icon. And his music continues to course through American life.

Bruce Springsteen once said, "There have been a lotta tough guys. There have been pretenders. And there have been contenders. But there is only one King."

And there's only one Graceland that preserves the King's memory.

I commend my colleagues for recognizing this singular cultural landmark.

Before we close today's session, I want to again say how much the Senate mourns the loss of Erma Byrd, the wife of our esteemed colleague, Senator BYRD. As the Chaplain opened the Senate remembering her in prayer, it is only fitting to close honoring this lovely and remarkable lady. Our thoughts and prayers are with Senator BYRD and his entire family.
